

On the way to the Internationalisation of the Curriculum at Home at Ostravská and NEOLAIa Universities:
new competences for students and teachers

You're very welcome to join another educational activity supporting the Internationalisation of the Curriculum at Home at the UO, offering students and teachers new opportunities to collaborate with colleagues across universities and countries, to experience a variety of perspectives and enhance their knowledge and develop new skills.

COIL (Collaborative Online International Learning): Design, Build, Deliver

How to teach in a collaborative way online in diverse student groups

Format: online, with English as the language of communication

Four online sessions: Oct 19, Nov 2, Nov 16 and Nov 30, from 16:00 to 18:00 on ZOOM

Aims of the course:

The online course led by dr. Doscher, an experienced expert in the field, is designed to guide you step by step through the preparation and the challenges of the implementation of the project of Collaborative Online International Learning: what to consider when deciding on the goals and content, how to best support student team work in the international setting, how to motivate students and help them broaden their knowledge and develop a range of skills, and last but not least show ways how to make it enjoyable for all engaged.

You're welcome to register at <https://forms.gle/CDE4vxUHaS5ZX1Kp6>

The course is led by Dr. Stephanie Doscher, a scholar-practitioner-consultant specializing in curriculum innovation and global learning, a Senior Fellow with the Global Citizenship Alliance of Salzburg Global and Executive Board member of COIL Connect. She co-authored The Guide to COIL Virtual Exchange (Routledge 2022) and Digital Internationalization: Beyond Virtual Exchange (Routledge 2023). Her global learning assessment rubrics contributed to the OECD PISA Global Citizen Competence Framework.
